

The Tariff Bill.

On the 10th inst., the Reform Tariff Bill was laid on the table, in the House of Representatives, by a vote of 105, to 99, as follows, (Whigs in italics.)

YES—Mosses, Abbott, Adams, Ashe, Baker, Barringer, Barnard, Baldwin, Jas. Black, Bragg, Broadhead, Miller Brown, Jeremiah Brown, Buffington, J. E. Cary, Carroll, Catin, Conant, Chilton, Clinch, Congdon, Cuttler, Cranston, Davis, Darragh, Garet Davis, D. Davis, Deberry, Dellet, Dickey, Dickinson, Dillon, Elias, Elmer, Farlee, Fish, Florence, Fox, Foster, French, Giddings, Willis Green, Bryan Green, Grinnell, Hedges, Hardin, Harper, Hubbard, Hudson, W. Hunt, C. J. Ingall, J. R. Ingersoll, Irvin, Jacobs, P. B. Johnson, J. P. Kennedy, Daniel P. King, Kirkpatrick, McNamee, March, E. J. Morris, Moses, Moseley, New, Newton, Painter, Paton, Peleg, Phoenix, Pollock, E. P. Rodger, Preston, Ramsey, Raynor, Ritter, Rockwell, Rogers, Russell, Sample, Schenck, Seiter, Severance, D. L. Seymour, Smith, Abner Smith, J. T. Smith, C. B. Smith, Spencer, Stephen, Stinson, Andrew Stewart, Summers, Sykes, Thosomson, Tidwell, Tyler, Vance, Vanover, Vinton, Walker, Whetstone, White, Williams, Winthrop, W. Wright, and Yost—105.

NOS—Meese, Anderson, Atkinson, Bayley, Belser, Bon-ton, James A. Brown, Blackwell, Bowes, Bowles, Brooks, Brinkerhoff, W. J. Brown, Burke, Bush, Caldwell, Campbell, S. Cary, Remond Chapman, Aug. A. Chapman, Chapman, Clinton, Cole, Cross, Culver, Daniel, John, W. Davis, Dawson, Dean, Douglass, Douglass, Duncan, Dunlap, Fickling, Hale, Hamlin, Hammett, Haraldson, Henry, Horlick, Holmes, Hoge, Hopkins, Houston, Hubbard, Hughes, Hungford, J. B. Hunt, Case Johnson, A. Johnson, G. W. Jones, Andrew Kennedy, Preston King, Lyman, Leonard, Lucas, Lumpkin, Lyon, McCausland, Macay, McClelland, McGerman, McConell, McDowell, McKey, Mathews, Joseph Morris, Murphy, Norris, Owen, Pease, Peleg, D. P. Potter, Pratt, Rathbone, D. S. Read, Redding, Remond, Ross, St. John, Sanders, Thomas H. Seymour, Simpson, Sibley, Robert Smith, Stearns, John Stewart, Stiles, Stinson, Taylor, Jacob, Thompson, Tibbles, Walker, Wentworth, Woodward, and J. A. Wright—99.

Absent—Mosses, Arrington, E. J. Black, A. V. Brown, Gagnon, Hayes, Johnson, Purdy, A. H. Read, C. M. Read, Rodney, Thomas Smith, and J. Tucker—12.

The Spectator analyzes this vote in the following table:

| Yea. | Nay. | Absent. |
|--|------------|------------|
| Dem. Whigs | Dem. Whigs | Dem. Whigs |
| Maine, 9 | 6 | 1 |
| New Hampshire, 9 | 0 | 4 |
| Massachusetts, 2 | 8 | 0 |
| Vermont, 1 | 3 | 0 |
| R. Island, | 0 | 2 |
| Connecticut, 2 | 0 | 2 |
| New York, 10 | 10 | 12 |
| New Jersey, 4 | 1 | 0 |
| Pennsylvania, 8 | 13 | 0 |
| Delaware, 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Maryland, 0 | 6 | 0 |
| Virginia, 0 | 3 | 10 |
| N. Carolina, 0 | 4 | 4 |
| S. Carolina, 0 | 0 | 7 |
| Georgia, 0 | 2 | 4 |
| Alabama, 0 | 1 | 5 |
| Mississippi, 0 | 0 | 3 |
| Louisiana, 0 | 0 | 3 |
| Arkansas, 0 | 0 | 1 |
| Missouri, 0 | 0 | 4 |
| Illinoian, 0 | 1 | 6 |
| Indiana, 0 | 2 | 7 |
| Ohio, 0 | 10 | 9 |
| Kentucky, 1 | 5 | 4 |
| Tennessee, 0 | 5 | 5 |
| Michigan, 0 | 0 | 3 |
| Wisconsin, 0 | 0 | 0 |
| 18 | 77 | 98 |
| *1 vacancy, +1 vacancy, =1 vacancy, $1 vacancy, 12 vacancies. | 1 | 15 |
| 15 | 3 | |

*1 vacancy, +1 vacancy, =1 vacancy, $1 vacancy, 12 vacancies.

The Globe has the following article on the subject:

THE TARIFF BILL.—It will be seen that the great measure of the session—the tariff bill has been laid on the table by a majority of six. We must say this result has not surprised us much.

Before the recent excitement had grown up here, preliminary to the meeting of the Baltimore Convention, which has been suddenly turned into an outcry about the annexation of Texas, we have reason to believe, the bill would have passed without difficulty.

It may, therefore, be truly said, the discussion about the moderate and immediate annexation of Texas has had the effect of defeating the great measure which has heretofore been all in all with the republican party.

We have understood that members in the South, heretofore the most active opponents of the existing tariff bill, have suddenly become perfectly moderate, and are now ready to vote for it, without loss of time, in order to get it through the Senate, in time to pass between the relays to be considered on the one side or to immediately decide as to the fate of the bill.

Resolved. That upon the issue offered by the whigs, and accepted in every time form but by the democrats, between HENRY CLARK and MARTIN VAN BUREN, we are ready to go to the people; that we will exert every effort to get the bill passed, and to support the design of Mr. Van Buren as the candidate, who has our particular services in seventeen out of twenty-six states been obtained; and upon this issue we are assured of a glorious triumph to our candidate and our cause.

GEORGE C. ALEXANDER, President,
W. M. CORNELL, Vice President,
C. C. HART, 2d do

Colonel Gilmore,
Richard Van Giesen, Secretary.

From the Globe.

A. North-West.

We had intended to say something this evening in regard to the obligations of the popular instructions on their delegates to the Democratic National Convention, and the authority assumed by persons having no right to interpose between the Convention and its constituency. We are saved the trouble by the following letter from George W. Thompson, a Delegate to the Convention—a gentleman long distinguished for his inflexible political integrity. It will be a sure, but worth while column of editorial discussions.

TO THOMAS RITCHIE, ESQ.

WHEELING, Va., May 8, 1844.

Sir:—My intercourse with you justifies me in approaching you personally, with confidence, upon any subject connected with the politics of the country. My position as an associated Delegate "from the State of the State to the Democratic Convention," compels me, in accordance with my original instructions, to speak only in positive and unequivocal terms, what must and will be my course in that Convention, and in the conflict which is to follow.

I will go for the candidates who embody the most popular proximate standard of the republican doctrines of '98.

I will go for the men in whose victory we will have a political regeneration, and a moral triumph, in whose defeat we shall fall with honor. Francis, at Pavia, with an empire lost, is immortal in the declaration which he made, and which republicans devote to virtue and honor can never disregard—"all is lost, except our honor."

I will go for the annexation of Texas, which, in which was lost through incapacity, may be required without dishonor and injustice. Texas is worth an honorable contest; but we worth the North and the West; it is worth the integrity of the Union. The faith of justice, public justice, and the union of republican governments, are more sacred than acquisition of territory.

I will go for Martin Van Buren, the moral hero of the great campaign of 1840, who received upwards of four hundred thousand votes more than any candidate of the party, which it has cost so much labor to mature.

"Nativism" in Congress. On the 24th of April, Mr. WERTHER of Md., opened his speech on the tariff, by calling the bill reported by the Committee of Ways and Means a "British Bill," adding that "the discussion on such a bill was suitably opened by the gentleman from Indiana, (Mr. Owen,) so lately a subject of Great Britain, and still doubtless retaining his pretensions for the land of his birth." Sir, Mr. Owen attempted to get the floor to reply to the liberal personalities of Mr. WERTHER, but J. D. Kennedy and E. J. Morris, Whigs, who claimed that he was a foreigner, cut him off. At the third attempt, Mr. Owen was successful through the courtesy of Mr. Hunt, whereupon—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

I speak as the delegate of this people, whose virtue is steadfast, whose honor in the contests of party is unshaken, whose trust never changed in the hour of battle, and in the hour of safety. They are Spartan sons; their honorable seats are in front; and when they die, it will be facing their enemies.

I subscribe myself your friend, and a delegate from the GEORGE W. THOMPSON.

Bonne County.

At a meeting of the dems of Eagle Township, Boone County, held on the 11th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend a county convention to be held at Lexington, on the 26th of May, 1844, to form a democratic party, Mr. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.

Comotion of Mr. Radman.

Resolved, That we consider the principles of democratic government as the corner stone of the state, and the representative of the people, to be the representatives of those principles, and to the nomination of our county committee in we will give our most cordial support.

Resolved, That we do approve of county conventions; and that we will support no man for office who will not support himself to the decision of a county convention.

I will obey the instructions of my constituents, and swell the tide of popular ascendancy for Richard M. Johnson, the poor man's friend, and the hero of the Thanes.

Mr. DURAN, when—

Mr. OWEN said—I have been anxious to obtain the floor, in respect to the neutrality of the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. WERTHER) because, if such trifles are to be the cause of two at a time, it is better it should be at once; and the two sleeping over. I ever regret when I am compelled to speak on the ensuing August election, in addition, Mr. M. A. Duran was called to the chair, and Mr. M. H. Hepp appeared extremely.